Re: Vision Industries Group, Inc. v. ACU Plasmold, Inc.
Case No. 2:18-cv-06296 JKS-CLW

Dear Judge Waldor:

This firm is local-counsel for Defendant ACU Plasmold Inc. ("ACU").

Defendant has received two certifications of counsel, each with attached attorney billing information relating to the amount of the underlying sanctions award. But, there has been no motion filed to address the issue as of yet. Consequently, we request the Court's guidance with respect to time frames for a response to Defendant's submissions, and any reply thereto.

It should be noted that one of the questions in the present appeal is whether or not Plaintiff should be compensated for letters. As we would have to assume that Plaintiffs will be compensated for letters until the Judge rules on the appeal, there is a chance that there would be unnecessary work done. That is to say, perhaps the issue of fees should not be briefed until after the Judge's ruling.

Hon. Cathy L. Waldor

Also, during the month of October there are six weekdays that are Jewish holidays when Edward Miller cannot work.

We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,
